HOMER'S BACKYARD BALL VOLUNTEER CODE OF CONDUCT

Make-A-Wish Foundation® of the Texas Plains and Homer's Backyard Ball strive to provide a fun, healthy, and safe environment for all individuals in attendance at Homer's Backyard Ball. The personal behavior of each official and volunteer is critical to the success of this event. Individual behavior shall reflect a healthy respect for self and others in use of language and actions. Group behavior shall include safe and appropriate use of public space in a manner respectful of others including participants and sponsoring organizations or entities. In the effort to maintain an optimal environment, officials and volunteers will commit to full participation in accomplishing the goals of the event. This includes being on time, participating and completing duties as assigned, and completing all tasks necessary to fulfill your commitment.

As a volunteer for Homer's Backyard Ball, I understand that if I am involved in any inappropriate behavior which includes but not limited to: abusive or profane language, consumption of alcohol during my shift or while wearing the official Homer's volunteer shirt, rude or disruptive actions; littering or disobeying requests by Homer's or Make-A-Wish® officials, consequences could range from a verbal warning to removal from Homer's Backyard Ball. I also understand that my participation in this event is voluntary and will assist in helping make this a positive environment for the other volunteers and patrons of the event.
